Plaintiff or Petitioner
State of Rhode Island

v.

Defendant or Respondent
Aecom Technical Services, Inc., et al

State of Rhode Island hereby requests that Adnan Toric
Petitioner

be admitted pro hac vice in the above case or agency proceeding as counsel with local associate counsel identified below, on the following grounds (please check appropriate grounds and provide specifics as noted):

The case or agency proceeding involves the following complex areas of the law, in which pro hac vice counsel concentrates: (The Petitioner shall specify the area of law at issue and the basis upon which the Petitioner certifies that the pro hac vice counsel concentrates in this area, including past cases in this or any other jurisdiction. Detailed information about past cases, including docket sheets, must be provided. Attach additional pages if needed.)

This is a case involving complex litigation in which over one dozen business entities are alleged to have failed in their respective duties to the State of Rhode Island stemming from negligence and breach of contract with regard to the Washington Bridge North No. 700. Mr. Toric has practiced law since 2021, with prior experience as a law clerk to the Honorable David L. Bunning, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky. He has been involved in handling complex litigation matters in various jurisdictions involving significant numbers of defendants. Attached are example matters.

Pro hac vice counsel's long-standing representation of the client: (The Petitioner shall specify all facts to support the long-standing attorney-client relationship at issue, including dates and extent of the representation. Detailed information about past cases, including docket sheets, must be provided. Attach additional pages if needed.)

The local bar lacks experience in the field involved: (The Petitioner shall specify all facts to support the claim that the local bar lacks the expertise necessary to competently handle this case. Attach additional pages if needed.)

The case or agency proceeding involves complex legal questions under the law of a foreign jurisdiction with which pro hac vice counsel is familiar: (The Petitioner shall specify all facts to support the claim that the case or agency proceeding involves the existence of legal questions involving the law of a foreign jurisdiction with which pro hac vice counsel is familiar and the basis for that familiarity. Detailed information about past cases, including docket sheets, must be provided. Attach additional pages if needed.)

The case or agency proceeding requires extensive discovery in a foreign jurisdiction convenient to pro hac vice counsel: (The Petitioner shall specify all facts to support the need for extensive discovery proceedings in a foreign jurisdiction with which pro hac vice counsel is familiar. Detailed information about past cases, including docket sheets, must be provided. Attach additional pages if needed.)

This is a criminal case and the pro hac vice counsel is the Defendant's counsel of choice.

Other: (The Petitioner shall specify all other facts to support a finding of good cause. Attach additional pages if needed.)

I hereby represent that I am a member in good standing of the bar of the State of Rhode Island and that I am actively engaged in the practice of law out of an office located in this state.

Continuation:

The case or agency proceeding involves the following complex areas of the law, in which pro hac vice counsel concentrates:

Mr. Toric has worked on the following complex matters:

1. United States of America ex rel. v. Janssen Biotech, Inc., 1:16-cv-12182, District of Massachusetts, (qui tam litigation).
2. United States of America v. Veterans Guardian VA Claim Consulting, LLC et al, 1:20-cv-00784, Middle District of North Carolina, (qui tam litigation).
